

LeaLea Trolley Expands to 8 Routes - Redeem Hawaiian Airline “HawaiianMiles” for Trolley Pass -

Honolulu, Hawaii, OCTOBER 31, 2023 – Hawaii HIS Corporation (“HIS Hawaii”) and its headquarters, H.I.S. Co., Ltd. (“HIS”) will expand LeaLea Trolley’s services to 8 routes on November 1, 2023. Stops along these routes will cover popular destinations throughout Oahu.

LeaLea Trolley first launched in April 2009, offering tourists access to famous landmarks and businesses in Waikiki and central Honolulu with a “peace of mind.” Due to the pandemic, HIS Hawaii temporarily suspended its operations in March 2020. However, LeaLea Trolley restarted its operations in November 2022 with 2 routes; The “Shopping Line” that stops around several business areas and the “Malama Line” that tours historical and cultural destinations in Honolulu.

In response to the recent trend of increasing Japanese visitors returning to Hawaii, we will expand the trolley services on November 1 to 7 LeaLea Trolley routes (6 lines and an express) along with Waikiki Trolley Pink Line; 8 routes in total. On the same day, we will also begin accepting Hawaiian Airlines “HawaiianMiles” to purchase LeaLea Trolley Pass under a new partnership. 5,000 miles can be redeemed for the 1 Day Pass, and 8,500 miles for the 4 Day Pass at the LeaLea Lounge (Royal Hawaiian Center).

After a year of various airlines announcing the return and increase of direct flights to and from Honolulu, the number of Japanese tourists who arrived in August this year was 2.3x versus the same month last year. (Source: Hawaii Tourism Authority) August being the annual biggest month for foreign travel departures from Japan, HIS regained approximately 76% of the figures for the same month in 2019, with families with children as its leading factor.

With the route expansion, we will offer tourists easy access to Hawaii’s lively neighborhoods such as Monsarrat Ave. and Kaimuki, where they can find locals’ favorite cafés, restaurants, and shops. To top off their full day of sightseeing, one of our routes is scheduled for tourists to enjoy the sunset as we drive along Ala Moana Beach.

LeaLea Magazine revived in July 2022 after a hiatus for a little over 2 years. It made a full comeback as a quarterly magazine in January this year, to introduce destinations in Hawaii and guide tourists via our LeaLea Trolley. We aim to raise the bar within the local tourism industry as the only Japanese-language magazine in Hawaii, by maintaining the continuous cycle of sending tourists to businesses through our promotion.
